SHASTA COUNTY CATTLEWOMEN

Dedicated to the Livestock Industry

SHASTA COUNTY CATTLEWOMEN

Cattle Women's Creed

Believing that the livestock industry is of basic importance to world existence, we, the Shasta County Cattle Women, dedicate ourselves to support it what our labor and finances; to encourage it's producers with our understanding and love; to do all in our power to instill in the coming generation the love of the land and of life; the humility and awe before nature; and the hope and faith in the future that is inherent in both Cattlemen and Cattle Women.

* PROFILE *

- Shasta County CattleWomen was originally formed as the Shasta County Cowbelles in 1961 with a charter membership of 16.
- Shasta County CattleWomen is an organization that is an affiliate of the Shasta County Cattlemen's Association.
- Membership involves Shasta County women who are interested in the welfare of, or who are involved in the cattle industry.

* PURPOSE

- To assist the Shasta County Cattlemen's Association in it's efforts to promote the welfare of the livestock industry.
- Educate youth about the journey of food from the farm to the table, good nutrition, and that beef is part of a well-balanced diet.
- Educate consumers about the convenient, versatile and wholesome qualities of beef.
- Stress the importance of agriculture to the economy and the environment.
